

Customer Information

We cannot guarantee that our products are free from allergens, as we use shared equipment in our café and kitchen site operations. Some of our products may have been produced in areas where allergens are present.

The following pages contain essential information to help you make an informed decision about purchasing items from our establishment.

All unwrapped food products and drinks prepared in our café or kitchen are included in this information pack.

Pre-packaged products will show allergen information on their packaging.

Please be aware that all opened food and drink items may have been exposed to allergens present in our store.

Unless otherwise specified, all items are prepared according to standard recipes. If you wish to add extra items, such as toppings or syrups, please refer to the specific product for additional details.

Calorie information is based on an average adult serving size for each dish or drink unless stated otherwise. While this information is accurate at the time of publication, variations in product preparation may affect calorie counts.
